St. Mary's places third in mock trial

St. Mary's Academy's Mock Trial Team, which placed third in the state competition of the Colorado Bar Association's State High School Mock Trial Team.

St. Mary's Academy had won first at the Arapahoe Regional Competition, and Horvath had been named best lawyer. At the state competition, Cella and Horvath won individual awards for best lawyers and Ferreira won an individual award for best witness.

St. Mary's Academy was coached by teacher Don Nelson and lawyer Jeff Pagliuca.

Lakewood High School was the state champion, among 22 state finalists. Regis Jesuit High School had two teams make the state finals.
